

Scott Burns

Scott Burns is a corporate attorney with Baker & Daniels. Prior to joining Baker & Daniels in March of 2005, Scott practiced in Southern California with law firm Whitwell Jacoby Emhoff LLP. Scott graduated from the University of Washington in Seattle, Washington in August of 1997, and received his law degree from Vanderbilt University Law School in 2001.

Scott joined the Family & Children's Services Board of Directors in 2010, and serves on the Building and Fund Development Committees. Scott was introduced to Family & Children's Services by David Storey, the current Chairman of the Board, and considers it an honor and a privilege to serve this institution and to provide some degree of help to those most in need in the community.
